The following documents are required to be completed 2 days prior to the start of class. Personal Data form, Consent to release Confidential Information, Program Agreement and Class rules. If you fail to submit documents 2 days prior to class, you will not be permitted into class and forfeit your registration fee.

A SASSI-4 or SALCE assessment will be sent to your email address on file once all forms are submitted this is due prior to the 2nd week of class. The instructor will contact you via email to schedule your initial individual session, this session is done outside of class hours.

Per TDLR guidelines, each class requires a minimum number of participants to proceed. This ensures sessions are effective and meet attendees' needs. If the participant count in a class falls below KEEP Thriving PLLC required minimum of eight individuals, you will be automatically moved to the next available class. The new class assignment will be determined based on your previously selected time preference to ensure a seamless transition. This process is designed to minimize any disruption to your schedule while maintaining compliance with participant requirements.
